REMINISCENCES GIVEN

The Fifteenth Anniversary celebration of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church was concluded Sunday morning when Dr. D. Burt Smith, editor of Sunday School literature of the United Lutheran Church, preached the sermon to the congregation on the theme, "The Church Sure and Secure."

Five short "Reminiscences" were given by Miss Georgianna Hoffsten, P. B. Krout, Mrs. W. G. Briner, W. S. Thompson and A. H. Durbarow. Letters of congratulations were read from Dr. Zenan M. Corbe, executive secretary of the Board of American Missions of the United Lutheran Church; Dr. Henry Pfum, president of the same board; Dr. E. Martin Grove, president of the East Pennsylvania Synod, and Dr. Frederick H. Knubel, president of the United Lutheran Church.

The congregational dinner on Friday night, served in the basement of the church, was attended by fifty per cent of the congregation. After the dinner the group was addressed by the following guests: Dr. S. D. Daugherty, former superintendent of Missions of the East Pennsylvania Synod and founder of the congregation; Rev. R. J. Wolf, secretary of the Luther League and supply pastor for Holy Trinity; Rev. Clifford Hays, pastor of St. John's Church, Overbrook, who also was a supply pastor; Dr. William C. Ney, Brookline, former president of both the East Pennsylvania Synod and the Philadelphia Conference; Rev. A. C. Kanzenberg, St. Paul's Church, Ardmore, president of the Philadelphia Conference and member of the Mission Board.

Narberth Loses Title Chance to Penn Wynne

Narberth lost its chance to tie Penn Wynne for first half honors in the Main Line Basketball League Monday when the latter team trounced the boroughites, 42-26.

Al Bonniwell, Penn Wynne center, scored five field goals in the first half to ruin the hopes of Jay Neill's lads. Penn Wynne ended the first half with nine wins and one defeat.

Narberth, in undisputed second place with seven victories and two losses, will play Chester at the Penn Wynne School floor this Thursday, but the encounter will not affect the final standing of the locals.

Harry Hollar's B team won a thriller from the Wayne Raiders last Thursday night, 35-34, with Manager Eck Burgess and brother George doing grand work. The Bees entertain St. Katharine's as a prelude to the Narberth-Chester game this Thursday.

Schoolmen at Sessions

S. E. Downs, superintendent, and Frank A. Dubois, assistant superintendent, will represent Lower Merion's school district at the National Education Association meeting at New Orleans February 20-25.

An appeal is made for rubber coats, ponchos or hats to be used by the members of the school patrol while on duty at the Narberth Public School to protect them from the weather. The appeal was suggested to the Parent-Teacher Association by William J. Sargent.

Anyone who has any of the above articles to donate, please send to the Narberth Public School.

Narberth Merchants Back Town's "Birthday Ball"

"Narberth merchants are virtually 100 per cent behind the Birthday Ball for the President to be given in Elm Hall January 30," W. H. Haws, chairman of the local committee, told OUR TOWN this week.

Practically all have donated prizes to be given at the affair, which is given for the prevention of infantile paralysis and to aid its victims.

P.T.A. Fathers' Night Proves Great Success

Teachers' College President Tells Parents About Character Engineering

TELLS OF MOVEMENTS

"Father's Night," at the meeting of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association of the Narberth Public School proved to be a highly successful affair as quite a large number of the fathers of the pupils in the schools were present. The presiding officer of the evening was Louis Alonzo "Lou" Young. The Rev. W. Vernon Middleton, pastor of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, gave the invocation. The Salute to the Flag was led by Elizabeth Foltz, Troop No. 8 of the Girl Scouts.

Sarle Brown, baritone, pleasingly sang two German songs, accompanied by Mrs. Brown.

Dr. Charles S. Swope, president of West Chester State Teachers' College, spoke on "Character Engineering in the Modern School."

"Character Engineering or Building is the most important thing in the school curriculum," he said, "as it is the building of human souls. While the young are being taught the school curriculum it is also the aim of the teachers to produce good men and women that the country will be proud of."

He told of the organization of the Pathfinder Council and the Big Brother movement, which has helped many a lad over a tough spot in his career and has made him into an upright citizen. Dr. Swope stated that Religion was also a vital force in education in order to produce a worthwhile citizen.

A social hour followed when the sandwiches and coffee were served by Mr. Young and the men of his committee.

Mrs. Howard Cupitt in a talk on motion pictures at the luncheon meeting of the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter of N. S. D. A. R. Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Dohard, on Wynnewood road, Narberth, said that "While it is true, there are some bad pictures, the audience should forget the parts that are not so good, and enjoy to the uttermost the parts that are good. One must have imagination to enjoy pictures."

She gave a review of several films and showed stills of others. She advised the members to co-operate with the local manager of the theatre stating that he would see that good pictures were brought to the community.

A short business meeting preceded the talk when alternate delegates were elected for the National Congress to be held in Washington, D. C., in April. They are Mrs. Harold C. Biggest Fish Bring Prizes to Sportsmen

Annual Awards Made by Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club

5 MEMBERS WELCOMED

Coveted prizes of smart fishing equipment were awarded by Wayne Burnside, field captain of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, Wednesday night to members who caught the biggest fish in 1936.

The presentations were made at the Legion Room of the Community Building, Narberth. The class of fish, poundage of catch, and the winners, respectively, were:

Flounder, 9½, A. J. Clift; striped bass, 8½, J. A. Miller; weak fish, 5½, Charles Hansell; blue fish, 8, J. P. White; small-mouthed bass, 4½, Lloyd Dubois; brown trout, 3½, J. A. Miller and J. P. White (tie).

Prizes were also awarded for the three best ticket sellers for Wednesday's meeting to Archer Cole, first; Dr. O. C. Whitticar, second, and W. Howard Haws, third.

These five new members were welcomed: James C. Rennix, Jr., Thomas W. Casey, Matthew F. Callahan, Charles F. McClain and Philip Silverii.

This committee was appointed by J. A. Miller, president, to investigate the feasibility of the club liberating pheasants this spring: Clarence Burnside, chairman; C. H. A. Chain, George Stecher, Walter P. Miesen, Archer Cole.

Mr. Miller, who has been re-elected vice-president of the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs of Montgomery County, gave a resume of that organization's recent quarterly meeting.

He said the County Federation is for the proposed Pennsylvania Sunday Fishing Bill, which he believes will be approved. It is opposed to the use of .22 caliber rifles during the gunning season.

The Federation favors a sixty cent flat increase to the State's present $2 hunting license fee rather than a $2 fee for small game and a $3 fee for large game. It also favors a fifty cent increase in fishing licenses which would permit the State to buy up streams as fishing preserves. Representing the local Sportsmen's Club at the session were Messrs. Miller, White, Chain, Burnside, Miesen and George A. Purring, club secretary.

The State Federation meeting will be held at Harrisburg, February 12.

The County Federation will hold its April meeting at Lansdale, its July session at Red Hill, and its October meeting at Narberth. The sessions are held quarterly on the third Mondays of the above months.

A Distinguished Visitor Notes Narberth's Courtesy

"Public school children of America are the most courteous and considerate of any like group in the world," the Baroness Marie Van Pamtz, internationally known Viennese portrait painter, told Nancy Norris of the Norristown Times-Herald in an interview this week.

The baroness' statement was based on her reception by the Narberth Public School pupils whom she addressed on art at the weekly assembly. It was her first visit to an American school.

Miss Norris' interview reads in part:

Fraulein VanPamtz says "I love America for its sincerity, its action and its democracy. As a people you are so happy and enthusiastic," she adds, "Our country has so much sadness that we find it difficult to laugh."

She was rather nervous about her talk (at Narberth) as she feared her listeners "will not understand my English."

However, her fears were unfounded. She was given a most enthusiastic and genuinely warm welcome on her arrival at the school by both the student body and faculty.

The band played as a welcome, tunes of Fraulein's native land, Austria and a group of students in native Austrian costumes performed folk dances.

"Those young people were so kind to me," added the Fraulein, "If a foreign resident would have spoken to a like group of school children in Austria, as I did, making mistakes in the language, as I do, I know they would have laughed and made fun as the saying is."

"Your children listened so patiently and courteously and then asked such intelligent questions. I do appreciate it all so much."

It is rather comforting to hear that the youth of America is being recognized for its good manners by visitors from foreign shores and speaks well for the spirit of the Narberth School and the leadership of its faculty.

Further comment would be superfluous.

Irene Dunne in "Theodora Goes Wild" at Narberth

"Theodora Goes Wild," current at the Narberth Theatre, presents Irene Dunne in her first honest-to-goodness comedy role as a sedate young authoress who suddenly decides to enact in real life the racy novel she had written under a nom-de-plume. In the cast are Melvyn Douglas, Thomas Mitchell and Thurston Hall. Richard Boleslawski directed.

"Born to Dance," Monday and Tuesday, with music by Cole Porter, stars Eleanor Powell, in a musical romance, with a roster of players that includes James Stewart, Virginia Bruce, Una Merkel, Sid Silvers and Frances Langford. The story concerns a small town girl who falls in love with a sailor.

Wednesday (Cash Award Night), brings "Luckiest Girl in the World," delightful comedy, to the Narberth screen with Jane Wyatt and Louis Hayward.

Thursday "Mutiny on the Bounty," picked as the best picture of last year by virtually every critic, will pay a return engagement by request.

Next week-end the attraction will be "The Garden of Allah" in natural colors with Charles Boyer and Marlene Dietrich.

"Valiant Is the Word for Carrie," now at the Egyptian, stars Gladys George, who makes her screen debut in the principal role of Barry Benfield's novel about a worldly woman who changes her life in order to raise two homeless waifs, then makes a valiant sacrifice in their behalf. Wesley Ruggles directed and John Howard and Arline Judge have prominent parts.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the feature will be "Top Hat," the most popular picture made by the dancing and singing team of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. No less than five great song hits are among the numbers in this delectable musical production.

In the Schools

Painter at Assembly

Our last assembly period was opened with Dorothy Thompson leading the devotions.

This was followed by the orchestra playing tunes of Fraulein Van Pantz's native land, Austria.

We were next entertained by Baroness Marie Van Pantz, Austrian portrait painter.

Madam Van Pantz has painted Prince Otto, heir of the Austrian throne, from real life. She has also painted other prominent people abroad.

Fraulein Van Pantz has been here a little over a year, but hopes to become an American citizen.

She talked to us about the importance of enjoying and appreciating art and what to look for in art.

Baroness Van Pantz told us she was greatly impressed by the freedom of America and the democratic spirit of the people.

She visited one of the classrooms and talked with the children. This was her first visit to an American school.

After this the Glee Club sang several Italian selections and Ernestine Cantagalli and Edith Mariana did an Italian folk dance.

Educational Moving Pictures

This week the students of the Narberth Public School will see three educational pictures: "Bread and Cereals," "The Boone Trail" and "People Who Overflow a Great Fertile Valley."

Maybe it's because you know that folks are depending on you to keep their telephones working—no matter what happens.

"Telephone calls have got to go through," the boss used to say. And the harder it storms, the more folks need their telephones."

Any time a player scores 19 points in one basketball game, it's news. Wellington Ramsey, called "Abe" for long, pulled that unusual stunt Tuesday afternoon up at Cheltenham in a league game. His efforts kept Lower Merion in the van of the Section 1 teams, neck and neck with Upper Darby, whose players had little trouble turning back Abington by a 29-to-16 score.

Lower Merion's victory was a hard-fought affair. The Maroon players came from behind a 4-point deficit to pull out 1 point ahead at half time. From that time on they held a meagre lead until the end of the game, winning, 28 to 23. Cheltenham gave the Andersons plenty of trouble, almost upsetting the visiting five with their aggressive style of play. Hendricks, the sharpshooting forward, rang up 11 points to keep his team right on the heels of the winners. The York Road team has been the real surprise of the league so far this season. Their work in defeating Upper Darby early in the season gives the Bulldogs an opportunity to win the flag without a playoff if they can keep up their winning stride.

No further games are scheduled for this week. The next meeting will be with Catholic High School at the Arena Monday night. On form, the city team should defeat Anderson's lads by a comfortable margin, but if our boys will put on the pressure they have a good chance to make up for past defeats meted out to the Maroon by Catholic High teams.

Harold Kline still pilots an undefeated Reserve team at Lower Merion. His boys have been playing an aggressive style of offense which has brought results.

The Junior High five has won seven straight since the opening of the season. They are still undefeated and on form should turn in a record equal to the best compiled by championship teams of former years. The games with Pottstown and Bayard, of Wilmington, both played during the past week, were the toughest affairs so far. Pottstown was not a good scoring combination, but their defensive style of play gave Lower Merion plenty of trouble. The Leopards finally won out, 18 to 12.

Bayard Junior High presented a fast, aggressive, well-coached five. They outplayed the Orange and Blue decisively for three quarters. At the beginning of the final quarter they held a 21-to-13 advantage that looked stronger and more formidable than the Rock of Gibraltar. The Main Liners, however, had overcome their timidity sufficiently to start playing their usual game. With rapid succession the field goals started to come up and as the final gun barked the Leopards were ahead, 15 to 21. A remarkable finish. Captain Jack Ryan contributed three beautiful field goals on hard plays. He was given help by Art Green, George Dunlap and James Farrell. The floor play of Green featured this final uprising. The boys entertain Radnor and their infamous zone defense at home this afternoon.

Mrs. Essie W. Viguers
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1820 Chestnut street, for Mrs. Essie Miller Viguers, widow of Charles L. Viguers, Sr., of Narberth, who died in Atlantic City, January 14, after a two days' illness. Interment was at Arlington Cemetery.

Mrs. Viguers, who had been a resident of Narberth for the past fourteen years, is survived by three sons, Charles L. Viguers, Jr., of 114 Woodside avenue, Narberth; T. Lawrence Viguers, of Collingswood, N. J., both of whom are connected with the Land Title Bank and Trust Company of Philadelphia, and George M. Viguers. Four grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Viguers, who was a real estate and insurance broker in Philadelphia, died nineteen months ago.

Mrs. Viguers spent some of her time at her son's home in Narberth and also maintained a home at Ocean City.

She was active in charitable and club work, particularly at the shore.

Mrs. Carrie A. Barr
Funeral services for Mrs. Carrie A. Barr, 66, who died January 12 at her home, 618 Moreno road, Penn Valley, were held Tuesday.

Mrs. Barr, who was a life-long resident of Gladwyne and Penn Valley, had been ill for some time.

She is survived by her husband, Harry S. Barr, and two daughters, Mrs. Wilbur Lentz, of Rosemont, and Mrs. Harry Halberstadt, of Gladwyne.
